

St. Francis Cathedral Book Club

Did you make a New Year's resolution to:

- Connect better with the Catholic faith?
- Meet new people?
- Read more?

The newly formed St. Francis Cathedral Book Club can help you fill any of those resolutions. Our first book is “Rediscovering Catholicism,” by Matthew Kelly. For this first book only, free copies will be distributed in the breezeway after masses on Jan. 21 and 22.

We will meet in the St. Joseph Room at 7 p.m. on Feb. 7 to discuss the first half of the book (Part One, “We Become What We Celebrate,” and Part Two “The Authentic Life”). We will discuss the second half of the book on March 6 at 7 p.m. at the St. Joseph room. Please feel free to attend both meetings even if you have not finished the reading.

If you have any questions about the Book Club, contact: Sharon Waters at (732) 494-8185 or “SharonWaters221@gmail.com”
